Holiday Death Toll Reaches a New High

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic
Boating 508
Drowning 204
Miscellaneous 148
Total 920

The nation's traffic death toll hit a record high for a summer holiday during the long Fourth of July weekend, breaking a mark set 11 years ago.

The over-all accident death toll, which included a heavy loss of life in the water in drownings and boating mishaps, reached an all-time high for any holiday period.

Belated reports of violent deaths during the four-day period which ended at midnight Tuesday (local time) boosted the traffic death toll past the previous record of 491. That mark was set in the four-day observance in 1950.

The over-all holiday toll surpassed the previous record high of 884 set in the four-day Christmas period of 1956. Earlier, this year's over-all mark had set a record for a Fourth of July holiday period. The previous high was 805 set during a three-day Independence Day holiday period in 1955.

National Safety Council officials said it appeared likely that late reports of traffic fatalities would raise the final tragic toll past the 500 mark. That, however, would be far below the record traffic toll for any holiday—706 in the four-day Christmas period of 1956.

Showers in Some Areas of Nation

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Showers sprinkled sections from the Plateau states to the northern Virginias today and the cool air chilled most areas from the northern Midwest into the Northeast.

Rains in most places were comparatively light but some spots were doused with locally heavy showers. About 1½ inches of rain fell in a six-hour period in El Paso, Tex., and Daytona Beach, Fla., reported a fall of 1.23 inches.

Showers which covered the northern half of the Plateau states spread along the Rockies while thundershowers hit areas from eastern South Dakota southeastward to the Ohio Valley and eastward to the northern Virginias. A few isolated thundershowers also were reported in the southern Atlantic Coast region and along the eastern Gulf Coast.

Mostly fair to occasionally partly cloudy weather was reported in other sections of the country.

Temperatures in the 40s were reported again this morning along the Canadian border from the northeastern upper Great Lakes to the upper St. Lawrence Valley. It was 42 at Bradford, Pa., and 43 at Pellston and Traverse City, Mich.

Hoffa Rules Union Election With Iron Hand

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press Labor Writer
MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — James R. Hoffa faced a Teamsters convention showdown today on a dues hike proposal, distasteful to many delegates and considered possibly illegal by some of his own attorneys.

The dues issue is regarded as the toughest to ram through the special convention out of a batch of proposals that range from a fat salary boost for Hoffa to a broad extension of his already substantial union control.

Hoffa wants a convention vote to require every Teamsters local to boost member dues, no matter what they may be now, by $1 a month. Sixty cents of that amount would go to Hoffa's headquarters, boosting the national union's annual revenue to about $20 million from about $8 million now.

The difficulty, as pointed out privately by some of Hoffa's own legal experts, is that the Landrum-Griffin law—passed by Congress two years ago after labor racket scandals—requires that locals must hold secret ballot elections to get rank and file member approval before raising dues.

This may leave a loophole letting national union conventions raise local union dues, as Hoffa is trying to do.

By way of being prepared, however, for any court challenge, the dues hike proposal provides that the increase will not go into effect in event it "cannot be effectuated." Locals threatened with legal protests reportedly will be encouraged to conduct ratifying votes.

Hoffa's tight rein over the 2,000 delegates seemed sure to win approval for his entire program. By way of insurance, he proposed and obtained speedy approval Tuesday for a new pension program for local union officials and staff employees, many of whom are accredited delegates.

Hoffa told newsmen he considered his proposed pay raise from $50,000 to $75,000 a year is justified. He said many corporation executives get more, plus stock options and bonuses, without half so much work to do.

Milton J. Liss, Hoffa's only announced opponent for the Teamsters presidency, meanwhile proposed a secret ballot election among the union's 1.7 million members next December instead of an open rollcall vote now among convention delegates.

Hoffa said Liss' plan would be put up to the delegates but indicated it would not get far.

State Death Toll Is Now at Eleven

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Two persons drowned and one was killed in a traffic accident Tuesday raising Arkansas' long July 4th holiday death toll to 11, seven of them were traffic deaths.

Mrs. Ida Newton about 30 of Little Rock was fatally injured when struck by a car as she crossed a street in Little Rock. Police said the driver of the car was Mrs. Emily Harper 18 of Wrightsville.

Hurricane Lee Currie Jr., 14 of Pine Bluff and his uncle Earl H. Harris about 35 of Fort Smith drowned in a stock pond near Pine Bluff when Currie tried to recover a fishing lure stepped in a hole and Harris went to his rescue and stepped in the same hole.

Officers said neither could swim. Both bodies were recovered.

The accidental death count began at 11 p.m. Friday and ended last midnight.

Six persons died in traffic accidents Saturday and Sunday one died in a fall from a horse Sunday and one was accidentally shot to death Monday.

Winners in Forestry Queen Contest

MISS RUSSELL, THE WINNER, IS PICTURED IN THE center of the top photo with the trophy she won.

ALTHOUGH IT WAS HARD TO ESTIMATE THE CROWD as visitors were coming and going all day it was estimated at over 500. Actually the celebration lasted two days with the trail ride being completed on July 3. Yesterday's activities were highlighted by the roll call and muster out re-enactment of the Hempstead County Rifles. Principal speaker for the occasion was Supreme Court Justice Edward F. McFaddin, a former resident of Hempstead.

Suspect Charged for Rape of Woman Here Earlier This Year

A suspect picked up for questioning in connection with the rape-beating of a 72 year old white woman here Sunday, July 2, has been charged with rape of a Negro woman on May 27.

Charges were filed today against John D. Patrick, 20, Negro, who has a long police record and rape has been involved, said Deputy Prosecuting Attorney John L. Wilson Jr.

"We uncovered the May 27 rape-beating during the investigation of the July 2 rape-beating. Naturally we are trying to connect the two cases," Wilson said.

"There were two witnesses to the rape of a 32 year old Negro woman on May 27 and they positively identified Patrick. They were afraid to tell of the incident before," Mr. Wilson said. "The Negro woman was beaten and raped and we think before our investigation is closed, other such incidents may be uncovered," he said.

The white woman was attacked at her home at 2 a.m. Sunday. Although brutally beaten, she was able to tell officers that a Negro man grabbed her when she handed him a match which he had requested.

She screamed during the assault and neighbors heard her cries. By the time they arrived the assailant was gone. She was taken to a local hospital and still in such condition that she can't be questioned except for a few minutes at a time. However, she continues to improve.

Deputy Prosecutor Wilson along with city, state and county officers have been investigating the case night and day. Officers arrested Patrick within 30 minutes after the attack.

Officers said that Patrick had served a prison term in Mississippi in connection with a rape-beating.

Rioting in Algeria Has Killed 12

By ANDREW BOROWIEC
ALGIERS (AP) — Moslems staged a 24-hour general strike and battled French riot squads in many communities of Algeria today to show support for the rebel government and protest against a French threat to partition the country.

Unofficial sources said 13 persons were killed and about 50 wounded.

Arabs and other North Africans, some armed with clubs and knives, fought French police and soldiers, who responded with rifle fire and tear gas.

Moslems were enraged at the idea that they might be relegated to the arid interior of this North African territory while the million European settlers took over all the rich and fertile coast.

The strikers were demonstrating loyalty to the regime of rebel Premier Ferhat Abbas and protesting President Charles de Gaulle's threat to partition the North African territory.

As the demonstrations swelled, it appeared certain the death toll would rise to dim the prospect of negotiations between the rebels and the French, which a French spokesman said had been tentatively scheduled to resume next Monday.

Two thousand Moslems clashed with police at Telerghma, in eastern Algeria, site of the biggest French air base in Algeria. At Miliana, in the central part of the country, some 300 young men, women and children, led by rebel guerrillas in uniform, rushed riot forces who opened fire on them. Five persons, including a French policeman, were reported killed in the two clashes.

One Moslem was reported killed at Castiglione, about 30 miles west of Algiers, when several hundred armed with clubs and knives tried to charge riot police and troops.

Shortly before noon the Algiers cashah, which had been ominously silent throughout the morning, began to boil with unrest. The twisting alleys rang with cries of "Vive Ferhat Abbas" and the high-pitched "yu-yu-yu" cry of Moslem women urging their men on.

Troops and police in Algiers charged a Moslem mob at the fringes of the Bab-el-Queud district where some 300 demonstrators massed, waving green and white rebel flags. Police used their clubs and the Moslems fought back with fists and stone.

In Algiers, docks were idle. Moslem businesses were shuttered and public transport barely limped with only European crews and armed guards. But tough French Zouave troops roamed the city, forcing Moslem merchants to open their shops and prying up the steel shutters with crowbars.

The strike was total in Oran's Moslem districts but was reported only 60 per cent effective for the entire city because employees in city offices heeded a government requisition order and scattered Moslem shops were open.

Mother of Local Resident Dies

Mrs. Myrtle Bernet, of Springfield, Mo., died this morning. She is survived by her husband P. B. Bernet, three sons, Fred, Jr., Glen and Robert all of Springfield and a daughter Mrs. S. Joseph Geno of Hope.

Arab League Trying to End Dispute

By COLIN FROST
KUWAIT (AP) — Secretary-General Abdel Khalek Hassouna of the Arab League left for Saudi Arabia today on the next leg of his mission to mediate the Kuwait-Iraq quarrel.

Hassouna refused to reveal details of his talks with Kuwait's ruler about Iraq's claim to this oil-rich sheikdom. But he said he does not think Iraq will attack Kuwait, and a peaceful solution can be found.

Woman Kills Ex-Husband at Stuttgart

STUTTGART, Ark. (AP) — Mrs. Mary North, 32, of Grand Prairie, Tex., remains in jail today following a gunbattle Monday night which left her former husband dead and her second husband and mother-in-law wounded.

Killed by three blasts from a shotgun was E. W. Vaughan, 49, a farmer who lived near De Witt. Hospitalized here with pistol wounds are Thomas North 23, of Grand Prairie and his mother, Mrs. Nettie Mays, 65, of Lodge Corner, Ark.

Officers said the shooting grew out of a long argument over custody of the 9-year-old son of Mrs. North and Vaughan.

The couple was divorced in 1957. Chancellor Joe Morrison of Stuttgart said Mrs. North had been given custody of the boy for the summer months and officers said she and her husband had come to Arkansas to pick up the youngster, who with an older brother and sister lived with Vaughan.

Mrs. North gave this account of the shooting to William C. Daviss, Stuttgart city attorney: She said she, her husband and Mrs. Mays had come here to get Sheriff Harold Wadman to pick up the boy.

"The shooting started," she said, "after Vaughan, driving a truck, forced the North station wagon off the street and into a parking lot. Mrs. North said her former husband then opened fire with a pistol, wounding North and Mrs. Mays.

Mrs. North said she grabbed a shotgun that was in the station wagon, crawled out and as Vaughan got out of the truck shot him three times. The blasts struck him in the face and chest.

Gas Tanks Blast Area of Richmond

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Exploding gas tanks sent flames racing through a section of the city's dock area early today.

Balls of flame rose 200 feet into the sky and the fire for a time threatened the area. The blaze appeared to be dying down after more than three hours of battling by more than 300 firemen.

One man was seriously injured.
Six homes burned. About 30 children plus adults were evacuated, some to a nearby school.

The explosions occurred at the dock of the Crown Central Petroleum Corp. where a barge with 450,000 gallons of petroleum products was unloading.

Two hours after the fire started,
P. R. Kirtley, a Crown employee, walked into the fire wearing an asbestos suit and turned valves on the barge pipe lines which permitted gas to flow into the river.
The tug towing the barge burned and sank. The barge floated free momentarily.

SUSPENSE

A Short Short Story

© 1961 by NEA, Inc.

The hunter established the time of the killing as 3 o'clock.

WEST OF FRONT STREET

By RUSS WINTERBOTHAM

The western writer submitted an outline for his story, which he said would be a murder mystery with Dodge City of 1870 as the setting.

The editor scanned the story.
"A pretty good yarn," he said,
"but it won't work."

"Why not?" asked the writer.
"It's got the sure-fire ingredients.
The western frontier and murder."

"Mustard and ice cream don't mix," said the editor curtly.
"Each is all right in its place, but you don't eat them together. You don't write a western and an eastern in one story."

"It has been done—a whodun-
nit western," said the other man.
"With pretty good results."

"Yes," the editor admitted, "but often it falls on its face. Don't write a story that tries to do two things at once. But that isn't the real fault with your yarn. You did a good job at mixing mustard and ice cream."

The writer was puzzled. His stories had faults. He would admit that, but he always felt that every rejection was an insult, or a rank injustice.

"It's authentic," he insisted.
The editor nodded. "Yes. It's authentic up to a certain point.
Everybody was expected to defend himself in those days, but it was murder if a man was shot in the back or from ambush. Your victim, Curly, was found in a dry creek bed three miles west of Dodge and was shot in the back."

"So he was murdered," said the writer. "And the sheriff solves it."

He was trying desperately to save the story. Always a rejected story seemed better than it really was.

The broken watch showing the time of the murder as three o'clock is a little overworked,"
said the editor.

The writer argued:
"There was a buffalo hunter who heard the shot and saw the killer ride away. The hunter was too far off to identify the killer, positively, but he established the time as three o'clock, and thought the man who rode off was Willy Grabb, a local henchman."

The editor nodded. "And Willy produced witnesses to prove he was in the Long Branch Saloon
at 3 o'clock."

"So what's wrong with it.
Everybody knows that Dodge City is where the time changes from Central to Mountain, and all the sheriff had to do was to show that when it's three o'clock west of Dodge, it's only two o'clock in Dodge, and when it's three o'clock in Dodge, it's four west of Dodge."

The alibi was shot. The sheriff arrested Willy and the case was solved."

The editor laughed. "You don't see what's wrong with the story?"
"No."

"If you'd been Willy, the sheriff
would have laughed at you," said the editor. "So will the readers if they know anything about the old West Time! What an alibi!"

"People had watches in those days," said the writer.

"But there was no Central or Rocky Mountain Time," said the editor. "The time zones weren't established until 1882, and your story goes back to 1870. There weren't any buffalo near Dodge in 1882, and you can't use the hunter and furthermore, you can't change
the time. Better write a new story."

S. Koreans Press Anti- Red Drive

By ALAN CLINE

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—
South Korea's military rulers pressed their anti-Communist campaign with new vigor today,
charging a former law school
dean, his wife and three others with being Communist spies.

The military junta leveled the spy charges, which carry a maximum penalty of death, after accusing John M. Chang, former premier ousted in the May 16 coup, and 11 of his associates, of collaborating with the Communists. All are being held.

The junta also ordered stiff new penalties for sympathizing
or trafficking with the Communists.
The stepped-up campaign was considered a smokescreen to divert attention from Monday's shakeup in which Maj. Gen. Pak Chung-hi took over as chairman of the ruling junta and named Song Yo-chan, a retired lieutenant general, as his premier. Pak
thus pushed Lt. Gen. Chang Doyoung from both key posts, contending South Korea needed more aggressive leadership.

Accused of spying for the Reds
were Chin Sung-nok, former dean of Seoul University Law School and a chairman of the Civil Service Commission under ex-President Syngman Rhee; his wife,
Kong Myung-ki; her brother,
Kong Kyu-min, and two others.

A junta spokesman said the five were under arrest and would be tried by court-martial.

The junta claimed Chin was kidnaped by North Korean Communists in 1950, taken to Pyongyang and converted to Communism and then pretended to flee back to Seoul. The spokesman said the educator had contact with Red spies a half dozen times
and protected them in his home.

The Communist sympathizers' law
was virtually identical to one John Chang supported. The National Assembly failed to approve it after strong opposition from students who declared it would turn South Korea into a police state.

Pak, who as chairman of the junta is the moving force behind the anti-Red campaign, was himself once tagged with the Communist label.

Unemployment
May Be Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government was expected to report today a jump in unemployment of at least a half million due largely to a record surge of teenagers
into the labor force.

The flood of job-hunting youngsters, including an unprecedented number of high school and college graduates seeking permanent work, was due to send soaring both the employment and unemployment totals for June.

Officials previously had said that "if only seasonal factors were operating the May idle total of 4,768,000 would rise to about 5.5 million in June with accompanying large increases both in the total labor force and in the number working at jobs."

TOWERING SATURN—The giant Saturn C-1 space vehicle, America's most ambitious rocket project to date, is shown assembled for the first time in the 204-foot test stand at NASA's George C. Marshall Space Flight Center in Huntsville, Ala. The three-stage rocket stands 183 feet high. The two upper stages are dummies. Two men on the third level of the tower give an idea of the rocket's size. Various tests will be made on the Saturn in Huntsville before an identical one is launched from Cape Canaveral, Fla., for the first time late this year.

Man Fights Police Over Dad's Death

WESTPORT, Conn. (AP)—A young advertising agency employe walked into police headquarters Tuesday and started a gun battle with police a short time after his father was shot to death. He was injured critically by police bullets.

The gun play between Brendan McLaughlin, 26, an ex-Marine and former art student, and the police took place a short distance from the house where McLaughlin's father, 70, lay dead with five bullet wounds.

"Brendan just lost his mind,"
Mrs. Eugene McLaughlin said later of her son.

Police said McLaughlin began firing at two officers in the station, wounding patrolman Donald Bennette, 26, in the hip.

He then aimed his .45 pistol at desk officer Andrew Chapo, 35, who said "Don't be a fool. Put that gun down," making sure that his words carried over the police radio transmitter.

McLaughlin turned and fled with Chapo and the wounded Bennette in pursuit. McLaughlin was trapped outside in the police parking lot as cruisers, alerted by Chapo's words over the radio, converged on the station.

In the gunfight which followed,
McLaughlin was felled by bullets
in the stomach and chest. Chapo was hit in the hip.

The body of Eugene McLaughlin, a retired industrial engineer, was found by a police officer checking neighbors' reports of gun-fire coming from the house.

The neighbors told police they saw the younger McLaughlin running from the house shortly after they heard the shots.

May Ask Meet on Higher Education

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Jackson County Rep. Lonnie Etheridge
plans to ask a special legislative session to establish an advisory council on higher education in Arkansas.

Etheridge said he would submit a bill similar to one defeated during the 1961 session. There has been increased interest in such a board since defeat of Gov. Orval
E. Faubus' $60 million bond issue proposal.

Faubus is expected to call the Legislature around Aug. 1 to rewrite a state construction program to replace the plan in the defeated bond proposal.

Many Hurt in Ohio Train Accident

VAN WERT, Ohio (AP)—Eleven persons were hurt, one seriously, at 5:35 a.m. EST today when the Pennsylvania Railroad's
New York-to-Chicago passenger train, the General-Traillblazer, derailed nine miles northwest of this town.

The accident took place in the village of Conroy, six miles east of the Ohio-Indiana line, and about 16 miles southeast of Fort Wayne, Ind.

A trailer-truck became stalled on a crossing and was hit by the train. The lead unit of a three-unit diesel which hit the trailer remained on the tracks. But the other two units, an express car, a baggage car, a lounge car and four coaches derailed.

None of the cars overturned,
but some were tipped at a 45-
degree angle.

About 1,000 feet of track were ripped up, but the east-bound track of the railroad remained clear.

Man's Body Is Found in a Truck

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—A body tentatively identified as a 38-year-old ex-convict from Pittsburg, Calif., was found in a truck parked on an Arkansas River road near here Tuesday, and officials said the man was murdered.

Sheriff Fred B. Hayes said papers found in the truck established the victim's identity as Johnnie Windham.

Coroner B. G. Hendrix said
Windham died of multiple blows on the back of the head. The blood-spattered handle of a toy wagon found nearby was believed to be the murder weapon.

Windham had been dead about 18 hours when his body was found, Hendrix said.

Hayes said Pittsburg officers told him Windham had served a term in the Nevada penitentiary
for a 1948 holdup.

John Newman and Clyde Miller, who live near here, said they found the body when they had gone to the area to feed some cattle.

They had seen the truck parked
there Monday, they told officers, but paid no attention to it because they said it was not unusual to see cars parked in the area.

When they saw it was still there Tuesday they looked inside and saw Windham slumped over in the seat.

Authorities said they did not know what Windham was doing in the area and would advance no theories as to why he was killed.

ANOTHER BIG REASON BEHIND

A BIG BOOM IN FORD SALES:

No other wagon can match
Ford's features (or popularity!)

There's a whole wagonload of Ford features that only America's station wagon specialists can bring you.

First, there's more room.
Ford's extended load deck is the longest and widest in its field.
The tailgate opening is seven inches wider than last year, too.

There's more convenience. You can have an electrically controlled roll-down rear window in any Ford wagon... it's standard in all Country Squires and 9-Passenger Country Sedans. In their field, only Ford wagons have all seats facing forward.

There's more distinction. The Country Squire (shown above)
is the one and only wagon in its field with body panels that look like mahogany, wear like steel.

There are more savings, too.
Ford's Ranch Wagon is America's lowest-priced, full-size wagon.
And like all Fords, every Ford wagon is built to be more service-free: goes 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications, 4,000 miles between oil changes, brakes adjust automatically, mufflers are made to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers, and the finish never needs waxing.

STOP putting off that station
wagon you've always wanted.
SWAP for a '61 Ford wagon now while your Ford Dealer's celebrating record-breaking sales.

Hope Junior Auxiliary Gets Charter

The Hope Junior Auxiliary, having served as a Petitioning and Provisional Chapter, realized the culmination of their work when Mrs. James Robinson of Louisville, Miss., president of the National Assn. of Junior Auxiliaries presented Mrs. George H. Wright, president of the local organization, a charter signifying the acceptance of the Hope membership as an active chapter of the association.

Sponsored by the Nashville Auxiliary, the Hope Chapter was organized in 1959 with Mrs. Fred Ellis serving as organizing president. Projects adopted at this time were: a Thrift Shop, Audio-Visual tests, Art Exhibit, Hope Youth Center participation, County Health Clinic assistance, United Fund support, Bridge lessons for teenagers and clothes for needy children.

Scheduled visiting in local Rest Homes, providing the salary for an activities director at the youth center and assisting in the Southwest District Poultry Festival are additional undertakings under the presidency of Mrs. George Robinson during the provisional year. For this special occasion of Charter presentation, a luncheon meeting was held at the Hope Country Club, June 30 with Mrs. Robinson, Miss Martha Wise, the Paul, Judy and Steve, who have been a guest of their grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cunningham left this past weekend to visit the Charles Halbert family in Houston and to see relatives in various points of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Klipsch were visited Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Willemis of El Paso, Texas. James Corry, owner of the Audio Center in Houston was a guest on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moers have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hickok, Jane and Amy of Peoria, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. "Son" Jones of Dallas and T-Sgt. and Mrs. Lyle Jones and family of Alexandria La. spent the weekend with Mrs. E. S. Jones and other relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Lafferty and family of Miami, spent the holidays here with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Williams Jr. and son of Houston are visiting Mrs. Jeff Williams and Mrs. I. F. Russell.

Mr. and Mrs. Glennie Graham of Hollywood, Fla. are visiting Mrs. K. G. McInae.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Lewis of Arkadelphia announce the birth of a son, Neil Aubrey, born July 1. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Olin A. Lewis of Hope. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Phillips of El Dorado.

He Promised Her the Moon

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I gambled and lost. A man promised me the silver moon on a golden platter if I would marry him. Being a divorcee with three small children and none to good health, I said yes. This entailed selling everything in my house and moving to the state where the moon, in the form of money, awaited us. I played Mrs. Santa until all mine had been spent and bills stacked sky high. The children and I came back to the empty old house to start life over again. My advice to women is: turn deaf ears to sweet talk, hang on to what money you've got and, if a man promises you the moon, let him go after it at his expense, not yours. —Poor-but-Wiser

Dear Wiser: At least you've profited by your experience. Next time, and there will be a next, for every day is a new beginning put more emphasis on the spiritual and less on the material. In other words, seek understanding way and stop signs. She emphasized that an auxiliary develops the ability to serve its community by learning its particular needs, and accomplishes its objectives through unselfish service. At the request of Mrs. Robinson, members of the Hope Chapter stood as they pledged to uphold the high ideals embodied in the objectives of the National Assn.

Accepting the charter, Mrs. Wright expressed appreciation to the Nashville Auxiliary for its sponsorship and confirmed the desire of the local chapter to bring the community in which they live through services they may perform.

Dear Helen: Why is it that love rather than financial security. Given that, you really will be rich.

Dear Helen: What would you do if a member of your family stole and lied? When I write this it sends cold shivers down my back for the thief and prevaricator is my darling nine-year-old granddaughter whom I love dearly. Until I discovered what she was doing I had her here every day and on Sundays took her to church with me. We read Bible stories together. She went shopping with me. I loved her more than my own children. Then I began missing small items and finally a valuable necklace, then shook my fist under her nose (in self-defense, she "confessed") to having taken it. Now my son and his wife and my granddaughter will have nothing to do with me and my husband. My daughter-in-law is very strict with the child. Maybe this is responsible for her twisted morals. Help me clear up this dreadful mess. —Grammie

Dear Grammie: Clarify this alarming situation at once. Ask your son and his wife to come to your home and bring their little girl. Tell the truth in her presence. Do it with love, not malice, and make it clear that she needs immediate help. She could be a kleptomaniac, which as you know, is an irresistible, high-fingeredness in people who steal for the sake of stealing. It is a form of insanity and requires psychiatric treatment. Your son, being your son, should respect your wishes. Take charge!

Couldn't Control That Bear Cub

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — A friend gave John Fitch an orphaned male bear cub the other day.

Fitch, 37, who had been hunting for bear all week with nary a sight of one, was delighted. He brought the cub home in a box.

The 30-pound animal took over the garage and the backyard, stripped Fitch's apricot tree, tried to climb the fig tree but gave up because it was too slippery and harassed the family's dog and pet turtle.

When he didn't have anything else to do, the cub, named Bigfoot by the Fitches, nibbled daintily on flowers.

That was to much for Fitch. Today the cub is nibbling bars at the San Diego zoo, and Fitch is repairing his backyard.

soldiers don't have the public's respect in peacetime? Decent girls shy away from us, is it because we are judged by others of our kind? There are bad apples along with good ones in every barrel. Why should we, the good ones, suffer? —Soldier

Dear Soldier: Put it up to your chaplain. Ask him to arrange social get-togethers with the help of local organizations. If your behavior merits it, you'll be invited back. Show your letter and my reply to him.

Send your problems to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful leaflets available. Write for "The Way to a Girl's Heart."

The Ponies have sparked up the Wednesday night activities along with basketball, boxing, both jr. and heavy weight and all the latest records. James Watson is Manager; Roscoe Smith, supervisor of recreation.

Mrs. Neva Carmichael, grade 6, teacher of Shaver Street Elementary School has returned home after three weeks of study in a "Developmental Reading Workshop" at AM&N College.

The workshop was sponsored jointly by Southern Foundation, State Dept. of Education and AM&N College.

Purpose of the workshop was to train persons as coordinators, a key position now to many schools in this area.

The coordinators' workshop attendants comprised 30 experienced teachers selected from 194 applicants over the state. More than a third of the group holds the masters degree and above. All hold the BS degree and above.

These 30 persons received tuition room and board scholarships from the Southern Education Foundation.

Key consultants for the workshop were: Dr. Lawrence A. Davis, president of AM&N College; Robert Cousins, assistant director of the Southern Education Foundation; B. G. Williams and C. A. Hicks of the State Dept. of Education; C. W. Dawson, director of the Division of Teacher Education at AM&N; D. A. Arlington Talbot director of the student life and personnel at AM&N; Robert Finley, readers digest consultant; Mrs. Thelma Blakely, director of audio-visual aid at AM&N and Dr. Kara Jackson of Grambling College in Louisiana.

Anticipated follow up meetings consist of a special dinner meeting during the State Teachers Association two sectional meetings, spring meeting and one week in the workshop next summer.

Fidel Hurls More Abuse at America

By JOSE MARIA ORLANDO HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro claims the United States is trying to force Cubans to go hungry by embargoing food exports to Cuba.

In a nationwide television-radio address Tuesday night, the prime minister accused the United States again of economic aggression and said the Soviet Union had offered Cuba 10,000 tons of food to make up for a U.S. shipment of 12 carloads that was stopped last week.

Castro did not explain the circumstances of the embargo on the food shipment. A Florida court ordered the shipment seized to help satisfy a $429,000 bill the Cuban government tourist agency owes a Miami advertising agency.

Castro called the food seizure the latest act of "imperialist aggression" and announced Cubans would have to cut down on fats until production can replace U.S. imports. Cuba has depended on the United States for most of its food, but Castro said Cuba would buy no more U.S. food, imports of which, he said, had run to $20 million a year.

The prime minister announced that Cubans, who normally consume about 40% pounds of fats per person annually, would be rationed one pound of oil and one pound of lard a month.

Castro also complained about the seizure of a Cuban twin-engine passenger airplane in Miami Monday. The plane, hijacked in flight by some of its passengers, was seized when it landed to be applied toward the Miami advertising firm's judgment. Three Cu-

Nudists Fail to Show at Capitol

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A threatened nudist demonstration at the state capital in protest of a 1957 Arkansas anti-nudist law failed to materialize Tuesday, to the regret of a crowd of some 300 or 400 people.

A man who identified himself as Robert Clogher and said he was editor of the Holy City, Calif., Apocalypse at Holy City, Calif., made the threat in a letter to the Arkansas Gazette.

The newspaper said it had learned Clogher threatened similar demonstrations at other places in the past, but said none of them materialized.

Third Party Has Only Two Members

By GEOFFREY GOULD WASHINGTON (AP)—There is a third party in the House of Representatives.

This party is not a household name across the country, like Republican or Democratic, but its existence is well known to members of Congress and those who watch them at work.

The party doesn't have a name at all, and has only two members—Rep. H. R. Gross of Iowa and Rep. Clare Hoffman of Michigan.

In the record books they are Republicans but on the floor of the House they follow their own rules. Over the years they have come to speak of themselves as "the only members of our party," and they are recognized as such by Democrats and other Republicans.

"Our objective is efficiency and economy," Hoffman said recently. "What FDR said in 1932 and promptly forgot."

Hoffman is one of the most noticeable members of the House. He is 85 years old, tall, hawk-faced, white-thatched and overwhelmingly articulate. Rarely at a standstill, he paces the Republican side of the chamber, ready with a "Will the gentleman yield?" whenever the fancy takes him, which it often does.

Gross is unlike his flamboyant party-mate but makes his presence felt. He is slight, has a receding hairline, dresses soberly.

The House meets at noon and by 12:10 almost every day the corridors and offices ring with the bells of a quorum call. It is H. R. Gross, who believes a majority of the members should be in attendance when important bills are being debated. Throughout the vast warren of the House Office Buildings, congressmen scurry to his summons.

His forte is to stand four-square against what he regards as excessive spending. He crouches quietly at the end of the Republican committee table, and if he thinks there is a chance to score for his cause, or clip a million off a bill, he leaps to his feet with parliamentary weapon at the ready.

Gross did it again this week in even more spectacular fashion.

An obscure resolution to create a fancy special flag for members of Congress was called up by Rep. Samuel N. Friedel, D-Md., who apparently wanted to fly it from the flagstaff of his pleasure boat.

Gross leaped to the fray like a shark scenting blood, firing a series of sarcastic questions at Friedel and another member who took up the battle. Finally, Gross shouted, "This is utter, unmilitated foolishness."

Speaker Sam Rayburn, irritated by the uproar, tried to dispose of it by having Friedel withdraw the resolution. Gross refused to go along and by a parliamentary maneuver forced a roll call vote.

Many hastily summoned members were not clear what they were voting for, and some later changed their votes. The flag resolution was voted down 270 to 108.

How did the Gross-Hoffman party start? Well, it's all in fun, but Hoffman has this explanation: "It goes back to the time when Gross used to rise to make a point of order or a point of no quorum. Some of the Republican leaders used to rush down there and in my opinion they tried to intimidate him. They gathered around him publicly, arguing with him. I considered it a humiliation."

"So when they began to put the heat on Gross, why, I'd object. I didn't want to see him kicked around. And you notice he isn't anymore."

In truth, no one seems to get irked by Gross' quorum calls: they are accepted as one of the facts of existence by other members, like dawn, April showers and appropriation bills.

Hoffman sometimes leaves a committee meeting with the explanation that he has to hold a caucus with Gross over their party tactics.

Actually, he says, "We play it by ear—there's nothing fixed or formal."

Gross has no dramatic explanation. "We just have a lot of fun," he says. "With all the frustrations around here, you've got to have a little fun sometimes."

Reyenga Boys Reunited by Service Ball

(From Korean Service Paper)

The 1st Cavalry Div.'s new Sports NCO, M-Sgt. Bill Reyenga, and his brother, Sgt. Sebron Reyenga, an umpire in the division baseball league and the A&R NCO at the 82nd Arty., were reunited recently.

The Reyenga brothers both have Army sports careers that span almost two decades. Bill's work has been confined to playing and coaching while Sebron has limited his activities to playing and officiating.

Both of the Reyenga brothers started their athletic careers in Emmet, Ark., where they participated in baseball and basketball in high school.

Bill, the older of the two, enrolled at the U of A where he was a member of the baseball and basketball teams. After a year of professional ball in the West Texas-New Mexico League as a second baseman, he entered the service.

In 1948 he began a playing-coaching career in the service with the Tripler Army Hospital in Hawaii. As a second baseman with the team he made the All-Star team for four successive years and led the league in hitting in 1949. In the same year he coached the team to the USAR-PAC title.

At Fort Riley, Kan. he confined himself to coaching and in 1955 they capped the 5th Army baseball crown.

Before coming to Korea, the journeyman coach was stationed at the Brooke Army Medical Center in Texas where his basketball teams captured successive Fourth Army basketball crowns in 1959 and 1960. His baseball team took second place in the Fourth Army tourney in 1960.

During Bill Reyenga's 14 years in the coaching ranks, he has coached many outstanding collegiate and professional ball players. Among these are Jackie Brandt of the Baltimore Orioles, Don Ferrerese of Philadelphia Phillies in baseball and Arnie Short of Oklahoma in basketball.

While Bill was doing his coaching, Sebron was officiating and playing.

In 1947 Sebron played third base on the Brooke Army Medical Center team that had his brother playing second base.

The Reyenga brothers were reunited again in 1952 at the Percy Jones Army Hospital in Michigan where Sebron was the third baseman and Bill was coach.

When Bill returned to Brooke Army Medical Center, he found that he had lost a player, but gained a friend as an umpire. Sebron was now a man in blue, and it was seldom that the two did not disagree.

Once again the Reyenga brothers are united; this time in the 1st Cavalry Division. Bill holds the position of the Division Sports NCO. In addition he will coach any division level team in 8th Army competition in basketball and baseball.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Smith of Emmet are parents of the boys and they have a sister living in Prescott and another sister, Mrs. Roy Dale Fry lives in Hope. Bills wife and children lives in Emmet and Sebron's wife and children live in Winchester, Ind.

Tigers, Yanks Split; Ford Wins No. 15

BY ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Detroit Tigers retained a one-game lead in the American League by salvaging a split with second place New York in their July 4 doubleheader. The Tigers won the nightcap 4-3 in 10 innings after blowing the opener 6-2 as southpaw Whitey Ford won his 15th for the Yankees.

A steal of home by Chien Fernandez, for a 3-2 lead in the ninth inning, and a two-out, two-strike squeeze bunt by winning right-hander Frank Lary in the 10th did it for the Tigers.

That put Detroit in first place on July 4th for the first time since 1950. And it also gave the Tigers a 6-5 lead in the season series as they kissed the Yankees goodbye until Sept. 1.

In the other AL games, Baltimore moved within 1½ games of third place Cleveland by clubbing the Indians 5-1. Washington belted Boston 7-3. Minnesota beat the Chicago White Sox twice, 6-4 and 4-2, and the Los Angeles Angels fled the cellar with a 12-5 and 7-5 sweep over Kansas City that plunked the A's into 10th place.

In the National League, Cincinnati retained a two-game lead by beating Pittsburgh 2-0 while the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Milwaukee 6-5. San Francisco split a pair at Chicago, edging 19-3 before the Cubs took a 3-2 decision. St. Louis and Philadelphia also split, the Cards winning the opener 10-7, then losing to the Phils 10-6.

For the record, over the past 60 years 41 July 4 leaders have gone on to win the pennant in the American League. Thirty-eight have done it in the NL. The Tigers, incidentally, finished second to New York in 1950.

Lary's perfect bunt came with two on against Bill Stafford (6-4) the loser in relief. Then relievers Hank Aguirre and Terry Fox saved it for Lary (12-4), with Fox getting Bill Skowron on a fly for the final out with the tying run on third base.

Lary, now 26-9 lifetime against New York, 3-1 this season, had a three-hit shutout until the eighth inning, when Roger Maris tied it 2-2 with his 31st home run and moved 17 games ahead of Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927. After Fernandez' steal of home against rookie Roland Sheldon, the Yankees tied it in their ninth on a pinch single by Hector Lopez.

The crowd of 74,246—largest in 11 years at Yankee Stadium, big 28th of the year in the majors and 8,000 more than the entire NL drew—saw what they came to see when Ford (15-2) won his ninth in a row in the opener. The little lefty gave up five hits, one a home run by Dick Brown, walked but one and fanned 11, upping his AL-leading strikeout total to 119. The Yankees beat Don Mossi (9-2) with six runs in the fifth, five of them unearned. Elston Howard's three-run triple was the big blow.

A pair of homers by Gus Triandos, good for four RBI against loser Wynn Hawkins (5-8), and a solo shot by Earl Robinson did it romping 19-3 before the Cubs

Travs Skid With 2 Losses to Nashville

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Chattanooga, winner of its share of Southern Association pennants, is saddled with a king-sized jinx when it comes to losing the midseason All-Star Game to the East Tennessee city.

The Lookouts, who led the league most of the first half of the season, slipped out of first place at precisely the wrong time. As a result, the Birmingham Barons will play hosts for the stars at Rickwood Park July 11.

Chattanooga dropped to second place Monday night after a loss to Shreveport as Birmingham and Macon struggled to a curfew-halted tie, Tuesday night, Chattanooga edged Shreveport 5-4 but Birmingham wrapped up the All-Star host role by downing the Macon Peaches 7-4. The turn of Barber (9-6) was backed by four double plays and gave up only five hits, one a home run by Tito Francona.

Gene Woodling drove in four runs, three with a first-inning homer, for the Senators, who got the clincher in the sixth on a double by Lenus shortstop Ron Stillwell off loser Don Schwall (6-2). Tom Cheney, ex-St. Louis and Pittsburgh right-hander, won his first in the AL with relief help.

The Twins took the opener on a two-out, pinch-hit grand slam by Julio Becquer in the ninth inning that gave the decision to reliever Chuck Stobbs (2-3). Then Harmon Killebrew's three-run, inside-the-park homer wrapped up the nightcap in the eighth inning for Jack Kralick (3-5). Frank Baumann (5-7), working in relief, and Cal McLish (4-4) were the losers for the White Sox, who have dropped four in a row and seven of eight since winning 12 straight and 19 of 20.

George and Leroy Thomas, unrelated Angels, hit three-run homers in the opener as Ted Bowsfield (5-2) beat Lew Krausse (1-3), the $125,000 right-hander who shut out Los Angeles on three hits in his pro debut. Rocky Bridges' first home run in two seasons brought the Angels from behind in the second game in a six-run seventh. Tom Morgan (2-1) was the winner and Ed Rakow (1-3) the loser, both in relief.

Atlanta and Nashville swept doubleheaders. The Crackers applied a double-dose of shutout to Mobile 5-1 and 1-0, and Nashville downed the skidding Little Rock Travelers 6-2 and 6-4. The sweep enabled the Vols to pull into a tie for fifth place with Shreveport.

Little Rock led Nashville briefly in the first game and threatened once in the nightcap when the Travs scored three runs in the seventh inning. But Bruce Swango took over from Gene Baque and got the situation back in hand for Nashville. The Travs have lost four straight games.

Glenn Crable went the distance for Nashville in the opener and blanked Little Rock after the second inning for his fourth victory in five decisions. Baque was the nightcap winner.

Redlegs Stay Two Games in the Lead

BY ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds stayed two games out front in the National League race by beating Pittsburgh 2-0 behind the three-hit pitching of Joey Jay Tuesday while the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers won their fifth in a row with a 6-5 decision at Milwaukee.

That gave the Reds a July 4th lead for the first time since 1957 (when they finished fourth behind Milwaukee). Over the past 60 years, 38 Fourth of July leaders have won pennants in the NL, while 41 have made it in the American.

San Francisco split a pair at Chicago, romping 19-3 before the Cubs made off with a 3-2 decision. St. Louis and Philadelphia also split. The cards won the opener 10-7, but the Phils took the second game 10-6.

In the American League, Detroit retained a one-game lead by splitting a pair with second-place New York. The Yanks won 6-2, but the Tigers took the second game 4-3 in 10 innings. Baltimore clubbed Cleveland 5-1, Washington belted Boston 7-3, Minnesota swept two from the Chicago White Sox, 6-4 and 4-2, and the Los Angeles Angels dropped Kansas City to the bottom by taking two from the A's, 12-5 and 7-5.

Jay (11-4) gave up nothing but singles, walked but two and struck out three for his second shutout as the Reds won their fourth in a row. A fifth-inning home run by Gene Freese broke up a shutout duel with Earl Francis (1-3).

The Dodgers handed the Braves a fourth straight loss, and their fifth defeat in six games by getting all their runs in the first inning off Bob Hendley and reliever Don Nottebart. After bases-loaded walks forced in the first two runs, Charlie Neal belted a three-run double and scored the clincher on a single by Norm Sherry. Stan Williams (11-7) was the winner with relief help from Dick Farrell, who gave up a home run by Hank Aaron.

Ed Mathews of the Braves and Daryl Spencer of the Dodgers suffered injuries when Spencer slid into Mathews at third.

Orlando Cepeda drove in eight runs for the Giants in the opener with five consecutive hits, including a three-run homer that was one of the longest ever hit at Wrigley Field. Billy O'Dell (4-3) was the winner, giving up just two hits after relieving Ed Fisher in the first inning. Don Cardwell (7-6) was the loser.

Ron Santo's eight-inning home run broke a 2-2 tie in the second game and beat reliever Dick LeMay. Winning lefty Jack Curtis (5-2) and reliever Bob Anderson held Cepeda to a pair of do-nothing singles in this one, but Willie Mays belted his 300th home run for the Giants.

Stan Musial collected four RBI with a triple and a homer for the Cards in the first game as Curt Simmons (3-7) beat Don Ferrarese (1-4). The Phils then junked their losing string at seven in the nightcap, overhauling a 6-0 Card lead on a three-run homer by Jim Coker in the seventh inning off losing reliever Craig Anderson.

Anyone Can Win British Tennis Match

BY ROBERT JONES

WIMBLEDON (AP) — Take an Indian, an Australian, a Briton and an all-American boy from St. Louis, shuffle well and it's anyone's guess who'll be marching off with the Wimbledon men's tennis crown on Friday.

The shuffling-up is on the All England Club's famed center court today, when Ramanathan Krishnan of India meets Aussie Rod Laver, runner-up the past two years, and Chuck McKinley, the 5-8 bundle of energy from St. Louis, meets Mike Sangster, the tough and brassy Briton.

Whether he gets to the final or not, Chuck has served notice that Australia's virtual stranglehold on the Davis Cup—they've won it nine times in the past 11 years—may be ending soon.

Australia still has Neale Fraser, Laver and Roy Emerson, veterans of so many Davis Cup clashes. But Fraser, the ousted champion, has hinted he may be retiring soon, and Laver may land in Jack Kramer's pro net if he wins this year.

But if the future looks bright for the U.S. men, it has a gloomy look where the girls are concerned. For the second year in succession, no American girl has reached the semifinals here.

Karen Hantze, the teen-ager from Chula Vista, Calif., was the only U.S. seed this year—and she lost to Rene Schuurman, the unseeded, bouncy brunette from Durban, South Africa, in an upset in the quarter-finals Tuesday.

That gave the girls' semifinals

Hope Legion Plays Here Tonight at 8

Hope's Junior Legion baseball team should get a real test here at 8 o'clock tonight when they play the Haynesville, La. Junior team.

So far this season the locals have lost only one game and that was by a single run.

Down at Camden yesterday the combined teams of the Babe Ruth League, 1 and 2, beat the Camden contest.

Vacations for Two Officers

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Mayor Ben West has given five-day paid vacations to two police officers who captured alleged bank robbers minutes after two holdups Monday.

Referring to a number of disciplinary suspensions given other policemen recently, West said, "if we give them five days without pay for bad work why don't we give these men five days with pay for good work?"

The vacations went to motorcycle officer Frank Hancock and detective C. O. Robinson.

Thursday a British-South African look. In one, Rene tests Britains No. 1 player, lowering Christine Truman, who reached the last four for the second year running by beating second-seeded Margaret Smith of Australia.

In the other, top-seeded Sandra Reynolds, of South Africa, last year's runner-up, plays Angela Mortimer of Britain.

First July 4 Death in Years

LEWES, Del. (AP) — Thomas E. Fowler, 25, of Baltimore, died Tuesday night shortly after being struck by an auto near Rehoboth Beach. It was the first July 4th traffic fatal in the state of Delaware since 1955.

Over the Memorial Day weekend, no fatal accidents of any type were reported in Delaware. The last holiday weekend accidental death reported in Delaware was during last Christmas, it, to, was a traffic fatality.

When to Fish or Hunt

Solunar Tables

By John Alden Knight

The schedule of Solunar periods, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times, if you wish to find the best sport that each day has to offer.

The Major periods are shown in bold face type. These begin at the time shown and last for an hour and a half or two hours there after. The minor periods, shown in regular type, are of somewhat shorter duration.
